

The real deal in ultimate lodge experiences at Ashby Woulds

We take a look at the best of the best with a name renowned globally for excellence

If you're looking for a really exceptional experience it makes sense to look at a name renowned for delivering exactly that. Tom Hartley Park & Leisure Homes is a name synonymous with absolute top-end quality on a global scale.

An expert high-end dealer in the luxury and performance supercar world, it's fair to say he has been just as successful in the park home world over the course of several developments by Tom Hartley Park Homes – none more so than his latest exclusive boutique park at Ashby Woulds.

Opened in June 2013, this is a park which has been a phenomenal success. That's no doubt due to the philosophy behind it of making it the very best park conceivable.

With only four plots remaining priced from as starting point of £99,950 it's pretty much assured that it'll be sold out by the end of the year so to secure a lodge here you'll need to get there pretty fast. You can either buy a lodge here or enjoy a swift short escape in the lap of luxury – the choice is yours, but be warned, one may lead to another, this is a park you'll want to return to!

Location, location, location

Easily accessible for all Midlands cities and transport networks, there are over 85 attractions within 45 minutes' drive from Ashby Woulds, and it's in a magnificent canal-side setting surrounded by magnificent countryside. After Ashby Woulds there's another top-end park planned for Welwyn Garden City, so in addition to absolute top quality, this is a park group which can offer brilliant locations too.

A great track record

So how has the park performed so far?

Tom Hartley was listed as one of the top 500 companies to Inspire Britain to by the London Stock Exchange, so naturally from the outset they really did set bar very high.

We know lodges here have been snapped up fast, but on the luxury holiday escape side, Ashby Woulds topped the list as the most popular luxury destination with their booking agents too, attracting an unprecedented number of return visitors.

Absolute tranquillity – arrive, relax and unwind!

Wellbeing and relaxation has been taken to another level at Ashby Woulds. A qualified therapist is on-site so a variety of treatments are on tap for both men and women – the list is extensive, tempting, and the ultimate in relaxation and pampering.

All in all it's an exceptionally tempting proposition! ★

Lodges fit for royalty

Every element of fine detail at Ashby Woulds has been thought through to ensure the best possible visitor experience. It's a very exclusive park, with just 20 bespoke hi-spec Omar lodges in total and plenty of green space – "Quality not quantity" Tom Hartley insists, and each has their own decking area with custom built hot-tubs. Even the mattresses and divan beds have been specially made by the same manufacturer the Queen uses, and to the same standard. Sound systems are fitted to all rooms via ceiling speakers, there are TV's in the bathrooms and all bedrooms and iPod docks to most rooms. All appliances are top of the range branded A grade models. Tom adds; "We looked at every fine detail and we know our buyers have really appreciated that in full. That process included luxuries used by the finest hotels in the world such as The Ritz." It's also the only luxury lodge park in the UK known to have been awarded the top accolade of a 5 star rating for accommodation by the National Tourist Board.
